

H.R. 218-LEOSA
National Concealed Carry

OFF-DUTY FIREARMS CARRY FOR ACTIVE & RETIRED QUALIFIED LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

This one time only five hour seminar explores the 28 decisions, federal guidance, and history of the Law Enforcement Officers Safety Acts of 2003 & 2010 (commonly known as "H.R. 218" or "LEOSA") to help agencies, officers, retired officers, and civilian government officials better understand:

- Who can carry firearms nationwide?
- What firearms, ammunition, and magazines can be carried?
- When can qualified LEOs and qualified retired LEOs carry?
- Where concealed firearms can be legally be carried?
- Why can qualified LEOs and qualified retired LEOs carry?
- Whether your agency has any potential civil liability?

Who must attend:

- Police Executives, Directors, Police Chiefs & Supervisors
- Firearms Instructors
- LEOs who travel outside their jurisdiction
- Retiring & Retired LEOs

Come find out how to protect or establish your right to concealed carry as a qualified LEO or as a qualified retired LEO.
